

The image is a vertical promotional banner for a real estate project. The top half has a blue background. On the left, there is white Arabic text 'الملاز' (Al Malaaz) in a stylized font. On the right, there is a white line-art map of a building complex with various rooms and a central courtyard. The bottom half has a white background. In the center, there is a large blue rectangular logo with the word 'مشروع' (Project) in white. Below this, there is a satellite map of a city area with a blue dashed box highlighting a specific plot of land. A blue circle with the word 'الموقع' (Location) is placed on this plot. The overall design is clean and modern, using a combination of text, line art, and satellite imagery to convey information.
